POLICY FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF EVENT OR INFORMATION

I. BACKGROUND

Regulation 30 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as LODR Regulations) requires Tamilnad Mercantile Bank Limited (“the Bank”) to frame a policy for determination of materiality for disclosure of events or information to Stock Exchanges, based on the criteria specified in the said Regulations. The policy is also required to be disclosed on the website of the Bank. Accordingly, the Bank has put in place a Policy on determination of materiality.

II. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this Policy is to ensure that timely and adequate disclosure of events or information are made to the investor community by the Bank under LODR Regulations, to enable them to take well informed investment decisions with regard to the securities of the Bank.

The Policy applies in respect of disclosure of material events occurring within the Bank and its subsidiaries, if any.

III. AUTHORITY FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF EVENT AND/OR INFORMATION

The Company Secretary will be the custodian for the disclosure process.

The Managing Director is the final authority to determine the materiality by taking into consideration the opinion of the top management and authorize the company secretary to disclose to the stock exchange.

IV. GUIDELINES FOR A MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on the facts and the circumstances pertaining to the event or information.

Bank shall make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the board of directors of the Bank, is material.

The following qualitative criteria will be applicable for determining materiality of event or information:

- a. the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- b. the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- c. In case where the criteria specified above are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of directors, the event / information is considered material.

The Bank may also consider the following Quantitative materiality threshold in order to determine whether any particular event / information is material in nature:

Quantitative Materiality Threshold: Where the value involved or the impact of an event / information exceeds the lower of the following:

- 1) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank.
- 2) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank, except in case the arithmetic value of the networth is negative.
- 3) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank.

The Bank shall first disclose to the stock exchange(s) all events or information which are material in terms of the provisions of the SEBI(LODR) 2015 regulations within the time specified in the said regulations.

The Bank shall, on its own initiative, confirm or deny or clarify any reported event or information to stock exchange(s), any reported event or information in the mainstream media shall also provide the current stage of such event of information which is not general in nature and which indicates that rumors of an impending specific material event or information in terms of the provisions of the SEBI (LODR) 2015 regulations are circulating amongst the investing public within the timelines specified in this regulations.

In case an event or information is required to be disclosed by the Bank, in terms of the provisions of these regulations, pursuant to the receipt of a communication from any regulatory, statutory, enforcement or judicial authority, the bank shall disclose such communication, along with the event or information, unless disclosure of such communication is prohibited by such authority.

Further the following assessment would be carried for determining the materiality of the events. Note: the list is not exhaustive:

- Whether the transaction is in the ordinary course of business;
- Whether a related party is involved in the transaction;
- Whether the transaction is an exit from, or entry into, a significant line of business
- Other qualitative factors relevant to a transaction

V. CATEGORIZATION OF EVENTS/INFORMATION:

- A. Events specified in Annexure – A: They shall be deemed to be material events.
- B. Events specified in Annexure – B: The bank shall apply guidelines as per clause IV given above to determine the materiality of an event.
- C. Any other information/event: Major development that is likely to impact Banking activities or any other information which is exclusively known to the Bank which may be necessary to enable the shareholders appraise its position on the Securities of the Bank and not covered under either A or B as above.

The events / information, if found material including deemed material events shall be disclosed in the stock exchange as per regulation 30 the LODR read with SEBI Master Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/PoD2/CIR/P/2023/120 dated July 11, 2023.

VI. TIMELINE FOR DISCLOSING EVENTS GIVEN IN PART A, B & C OF SCHEDULE III OF THE LODR REGULATIONS

Timeline for disclosing events shall be as per SEBI guidelines/ circulars issued from time to time.

VII. AMENDMENTS TO THE POLICY

This Policy will be reviewed from the perspective of the Listing Regulations and determine the events/information for disclosure as may be amended by SEBI from time to time. All such amendments will be informed to the Board and the approval of the Board will be sought to align the policy in line with the SEBI LODR Regulations.
